Sometimes, a property does not need any big extras to win you over.~~It is enough for it to feel well kept, comfortable, and to give you that sense that life here could be easy from day one.~~This apartment has exactly that: a very practical layout, lovely morning light, and two double bedrooms with two full bathrooms, which is not always so easy to find. One of the bathrooms is also en suite, making the property even more comfortable for everyday living.~~The building is well maintained and feels peaceful, with the added benefit of 24-hour video surveillance. And around it, everything is convenient: everyday services, all you need close by, and the sea at a reasonable distance so you can enjoy it without giving up a quieter lifestyle.~~A home that works easily, whether as a permanent residence or as a second home.~~Taxes and purchase costs are not included.~
